Excerpt: .influences are insidiously gnawing at the root of the national tree. Why not an organization of American Nationalists to nip the evil in the bud? Or shall we wait, as we usually do, until hell begins to pop, and it is everlastingly too late? Better destroy the viper eggs: they may be hatching soon. Governmental supervision and wise training of Americanborn and foreign-blooded childhood and youth will do much for future preparedness. Drafting your man first and making an efficient American of him afterward is a bad and expensive process. Fight fire with fire. Fight foreignism with Americanism. What I say goes for every citizen. of foreign blood. The Black Hand is in point. Foreign settlements and foreign customs in this country should be swatted good and hard. The whirligig of time may bring us face to face with something very different from Germanism. Politics make strange bed-fellows. Politics and greed, or fanaticism also make enemies in the most unexpected places. The prospect of future world peace depends largely upon what happens at the peace table. The sentimental slush bucket and brotherly love will be much in evidence, but there will be so many conflicting interests at stake that the peace conference may develop situations which will make a Donnybrook fair look like a pink tea in the pastor s study. As for the far famed cats of Kilkenny, they may fade into oblivion. It has often been argued that preparedness leads to war....
