

Voices of the Spirit and Spirit Pictures (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Mary Carpenter William Benjam Carpenter

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Voices of the Spirit and Spirit Pictures After vain attempts to act upon the Government, the promoters of the movement prepared a Bill which was brought into the House of Commons in 1853 by Sir Charles Adderley, ably supported by Sir John Pakington (now Lord Hampton); and this they succeeded in carrying through Parliament in 1854. Even before it became law, Miss Carpenter, in conjunction with Mr. Russell Scott, then of Bath had planned the establishment of a Reformatory on the spot originally selected by John Wesley for the education of the sons of Ministers, at Kingswood, near Bristol. The old Kingswood School having been elsewhere developed into a New Kingswood of much higher grade, the property, which included a small farm, with farm buildings, as well as the school house, came into the market; and this having been purchased by Mr. R. Scott, the new Institution was set going. In the first instance, it was Miss Carpenter's idea that girls might be combined with boys, in such a manner as to develop somewhat of a family feeling; but...
