The Perfect Mirror

By Robert F. McKellar

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 312 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. New Years Eve 1959. Sean Sullivan is in the Marin county Jail charged with smuggling contraband into San Quentin Prison. He is thirty-year-old counselor who meets Cassie Buzbee at his birthday party during the spring of 1956. He is reluctant to pursue a relationship with Cassie due to his birth defect. She is attracted to him. The Perfect Mirror is a love story. The reader is a witness to three murders, and six executions. We follow Sullivans courtship of Cassie - their affair and the singing of songs his mother never taught him. We listen to Sullivans memory flashbacks wrapped in death and the long road to Cassies suicide in Fairbanks, Alaska. We feel the agony of Sullivans visit to his father in a state hospital. Sullivan loses his counseling job and they move to Eureka, California where happiness is in the present tense. Fun visits to San Francisco find him dancing at the Claremont hotel in Oakland. After two years Sullivan is terminated. They move to San Francisco and try communal living with the beat generation. Sullivan works for public welfare and witnesses a murder in the office....

Reviews

Unquestionably, this is actually the finest operate by any publisher. I have study and i also am confident that i am going to planning to go through once more yet again in the foreseeable future. I realized this pdf from my i and dad recommended this book to understand.
