Cellist Sophia Burkhalter thought ten years in Europe performing with an exclusive ensemble would have made it clear that she wasn't a candidate for her grandmother's matchmaking. After all, she'd walked away from the man she loved, leaving him back home in Kansas City. David Kendal had fallen in love with Sophia, a match orchestrated by her grandmother and his aunt. However, the unexpected appearance of the daughter he never knew he had—and Sophia's sudden, subsequent departure for Europe thrust him into the role of single father. Carissa Kendal has only ever wanted the best for her father. It doesn't take long for her to realize that the very woman who broke her father's heart might be the one to make them a real family. Can Carissa and the women who originally played matchmaker to the duo convince them that love is worth a second try? Or will careers and past mistakes tear them apart forever before they have a chance to reconcile? This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
