

59 Er s Gold: The Westward Trek (Paperback)

By Jean Chase

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Bit of History Although the Cherokees discovered gold in Colorado Territory a year before it was discovered in California, the Cherokees did nothing with it. The William Green Russell group worked the gold fields in California in 1849 and had returned to Georgia. When Russell learned about the discovery through his wife, a Cherokee, he returned to Colorado to search for gold. News of his discovery in 1858 brought thousands of gold-hungry immigrants infringing on land that was promised to Arapahoe and Cheyenne Indians in 1851. * * * * * Chapter 1 Yancy Sodders stabled his horse and muttered God, am I tired! as he half-walked, mostly stumbled to the barracks. Shrugging he pulled open the barracks door and stepped inside. He stalked to the table in the corner, glanced at the cards Sergeant Travis had spread out for a game of solitaire, and tried not to groan as he sat down. Sergeant Travis scooped up his cards, and said, What s it like working every day with that new colonel, Connors? Connors said, Lt. Colonel Albert Hornsby...
