BEL AMI (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

Bel Ami - Guy de Maupassant's classic tale of manipulation and ambition - is published here anew in a superbly presented edition. In this story, we follow Georges Duroy as he rises in station from a lowly ranked officer to one of the most wealthy and respected figures in Parisian society. The crafty protagonist attains his success by manipulating a series of wealthy and influential mistresses, coming into contact with each via his new job as a journalist. Published in 1885, this novel sees Georges gradually attain influence via strategic marrying and infidelity. A notable turning point in the plot is when we see Georges sign his articles as Du Roy - an aristocratic style of French name - rather than his actual surname which is simply Duroy . Georges matures as a cunning social climber with a keen eye for the preferences and predilections of the French upper classes, deftly winging his way to a position of power. Since its original release, Bel Ami has received several adaptations for the silver screen, television and radio, and is today considered a classic of French fiction.
