Amberley Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The popular medieval town of Conwy in North Wales, dominated by its thirteenth-century castle, has a long and often violent history. There are many stories behind the town's ancient castle and walls, its streets and buildings, and its residents, past and present, famous and infamous. These are told here, by local author John Barden Davies, as he takes the reader on their very own A-Z tour around the town's history, exploring its nooks and crannies, and along the way relating many a fascinating tale of the most interesting people and places. Fully illustrated with photographs, this new A-Z guide to the town's history will appeal to residents and visitors alike.
