BOOKS ON DEMAND, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. 2. Auflage.. Language: French . Brand New Book. Histoire d une fille bien etrange qui ne voit le monde qu au travers des yeux de sa mere et celle de la fenetre de sa chambre. Mais est-elle reellement comme tout le monde ? Je ne crois pas vraiment au miracle. A vrai dire, je ne pouvais pas croire a grand-chose. J ecoutais uniquement maman me mettant en garde contre les autres. Je les voyais tous les jours de ma fenetre. Il m etait impossible de les rejoindre, ni de m empecher de les regarder. Isolee, j etais condamnee a y rester. Mais j etais bien, parce que nous etions toutes les deux ensembles. Nous le resterons toujours, elle me l assure chaque jour. Enfin ca, c etait avant qu il emmenage dans la maison d en face. Ryan n avait rien d extraordinaire a premiere vue. Mais le reste du monde m a tout de suite paru insignifiant et monotone en comparaison a son existence. Il est le seul que je vois aussi clairement. Il ne peut représenter le danger dont maman m a tant parle. Son arrivee a mysterieusement apporte avec lui ma mobilite, celle de mon corps. Je me mets a bouger tout comme eux. Mon reve de danseuse deviendrait-il realite ? Par qui ce don, qui m a ete refuse des ma naissance, m a subitement ete attribue et pourquoi ? Pour combien de temps vais-je encore me controler ? Maman ne doit pas savoir. Je la connais, elle n accepterait pas mon autonomie conduisant irremediablement a ma liberte. Il y a certainement une raison a ce nouveau phenomene dont j ai ete la spectatrice de si nombreuses fois. Je suis peut-etre speciale comme me l a souvent..
