Each Unique and Fascinating

By M. Ferguson Powers

Whidbey Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 198 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.5in. Heartwarming and humorous, a solid pick --Kirkus Reviews A touching, wise book. Adventures grandparents will enjoy R. J. Franklin Biology-geek Julia Waters divorced parents come and go, her career-driven mother traveling for her job, and her career-military father deploying to dangerous assignments in war zones. Julia (age 13) misses them and worries about her father being wounded or killed. In school she's a loner because to save money, Mom has moved the family so often into a cheaper place to rent in a different school district that Julia has given up trying to make friends. After school out for the day, she wants to lose herself in expanding her Log of Animals to study more unique and fascinating specimens but instead must care for her sister, Belinda (age 8) and their dog, Portia, a gift from Dad. During a summer visit to her grandparents, who live on a Pacific Northwest island, Julia has adventures in which help from Gram and Papa, opinionated Belinda, and intelligent Portia teaches her that she doesn't have to solve all problems on her own. When an interesting boy with the unusual...
