Excerpt from Thirty-Sixth Annual Report of the New South Wales Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind for the Year Ending September 30th, 1897: Presented at the Annual Meeting Held at the Institution, October 19th, 1897; With the Treasurer's Balance Sheets, Lists of Subscriptions, Donations, and School Fees, and Information Concerning the Admission of Children Such children could easily be taught to write on a slate, or otherwise, in their own homes, or with their brothers and sisters in the common school of the neighbourhood. When the child can form letters on a slate, it should be taught the manual alphabet. This may be done thus - Write the letter a on a slate, draw the child's attention to it, then teach it to put its hand in the position indicated in the engraved manual alphabet for a. Repeat this till the sight of the letter readily suggests this particular position of the hand. Let the instructor then form this letter on his own hand, and see if the child can write the letter. In the same way proceed with the other letters. The alphabet having been thus learned, give the child names of objects or animals with which it is familiar, beginning with words of three letters as hat, dog, pig, cow, pin, etc. Thus Write very plainly the word hot. Then let the child form the letters h a t on its fingers, and next point to a hat. Let this process be frequently repeated, till the letters come to be associated with the object and fixed in the memory of the child. This being done, blot Out the word, point again to the...
