

A Disclosure (Paperback)

By Mr John Edward Flannery

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The long autobiographical essay, Madness is the first-hand, darkly comical account of the development and subsequent management of the author s paranoid schizophrenia. The story, Next of Kin is about a local government officer, Ellie Roberts who organises public health funerals (or what used to be called paupers funerals). On visiting the flat of a deceased woman, Nnedi Alabi, she discovers in her ramshackle belongings a novel manuscript that she reads and enjoys. The text resonates with her because she is also in an interracial marriage. Moved by the story, she and her husband decide to send the manuscript of The Day the Ship Sailed to a publisher. The story, A Transformation features the winner s speech of a transgender woman, Janet Frost, who has just been awarded a woman s prize for fiction in 2022 sponsored by a vodka company. Janet uses the opportunity to assert her transgender personality: I was a proud man and now I m a proud woman. Janet also recalls the ways in which she wanted to be a woman when she was a boy and...
