Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a book that contains every diffi cult question I have asked or I have been asked in the past eleven years. These are questions that people have trouble answering or even talking about. They range from relationships to sex to religion to government and even why people dress as they do or why they make the decisions they make. Sometimes what is real and what isn t and how you know the difference. I have answered them as logically as my limited knowledge has allowed me to. You may agree or disagree but I think you will fi nd my arguments hard to argue with. If you read and can understand this book it will change your life. Lonnie Garner was born in the year of 1951 in rural Alabama. He had what seemed to be a very hard life, but it prepared him for a life in the real world and helped him become who he is today. He is a son, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He has operated many businesses, some in which that allowed him to travel all around the world offering him the opportunity to study many different cultures, which has helped him become what he is today. He has studied and has had the opportunity to deal with people of many different countries. He says people are the same but their knowledge varies greatly. When younger he could learn very quickly. He sees different patterns that most never see. He started and ran a large freshwater fi sh company for years and it being one of the largest suppliers of caviar in the USA he developed a washing process for caviar that had...
