Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | kaolin refinement, zeolite synthesis and identification | This book consists of two main pieces of research on kaolin to zeolite conversion. Chapter one presents a general overview of the research to be undertaken while chapter two presents the literature work on zeolite science. Chapter three contains information on all the characterization techniques used in the work. The first major part of the study is contained in chapter four. Chapter four presents the studies carried out on the synthesis and characterization of three different zeolitic materials using Ahoko Nigerian kaolin (ANK). The second part of this research on the development of zeolite membrane from ANK is presented in chapter five. This chapter presents all the methods used in the preparation of zeolite membranes using ANK as a precursor as well as the results obtained. The testing of the performance of zeolite membranes developed in terms of coherence, defects and separation performance is also presented in this chapter. The book therefore provides the processes of raw kaolin transformation into zeolites and zeolite membranes and will be very useful to zeolite technologists and potential entrepreneurs | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 312 pp.
