THE ROAD ERODED BY BLOOD (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The book contains seven stories. The first story is Castles in the Air; this novel is indeed a cartoon and detailed scenes of those gory machinations of Nelson Iwenofu and Maxwell Anikwenwa. Paul, a new employee storms the environs of Via Crucis and believes he has reached a paradise. Incidentally his boss and the mentor of his boss attempt to kill him off for their political ambition. The plot fails. Now they decide instead to use his spirit to kill and kill and kill. See the road eroded by blood. But when the two wicked men begin fighting each other, their dreams certainly will never materialize. The duel has to be quelled somewhat momentarily as Paul disentangles permanently from such environment flaring with flames of animosity. But the victim s sojourn in a faraway world of a city rekindles a new realm of knowledge. There remains continued aggression on the part of both Nelson and Maxwell. Apparently, this experience of Paul marks only the beginning of spiritual tussle in diverse dimensions. He eventually survives that inferno and obviously flees from rubble of Maxwell s unrelenting evasive posture. The piece is followed by a true-life story: The Most Wicked man on Earth. It sheds more light on personalities used as characters in the prose-fiction. The most wicked people on earth are herein exposed and such details of both the exact setting and time of occurrences of some obscure plots are becoming much more apparent. The author himself becomes more and more obvious as his roots, his past employment and childhood days and such consequent evanescent memories resound in a supposed memoir and short novella, Mama Gwam. The road eroded by blood also connects...
