Amazing Grace Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Author Larry Webb states I love to tell stories, especially stories that have a purpose. This is the story of Jean Reichard Webb and my purpose in writing her story is so that her grandchildren could meet her through these pages. Larry is convinced that anyone can discover and experience God s best, in spite of their circumstances. In this volume, entitled Grandmother s Legacy, he documents for his grandchildren their grandmother s journey of discovery of God s best for her life. Jean was the birth mother of our three sons and birth grandmother of our eight grandchildren. Larry states Because none of our grandchildren had the privilege of knowing her, I felt compelled to share her life s journey. Throughout her lifetime she faced the challenges of resolving the paradoxes between her perception of God s will for her life and the conflicting realities of her day-by-day situations and circumstances. By knowing Jean s personal journey Larry hopes her grandchildren will also aspire to discover and experience God s best for their lives. This biography is an attempt to communicate, not just a family history, but also the values that drove the decision-making process as she served God.
