The Savior of Animals The first book in the series of Doctor Do little books, this adventurous children novel starts from Doctor Dolittles home and takes him to different places around the world. The story is about a respected physician who loves animals, obsessed with them, and who learns to talk to animals and how he becomes their friend and savior. In fact, this love of animals and his household menagerie scares the ghost out of his his human patients who visit the clinic, his house. His financial health takes a beating because of this. He then takes up a veterinary practice, his passion at last becoming his reality. He so quickly becomes wildly renowned throughout the animal kingdom. At one point Docotor Dolittle, just as he faces bankruptcy, has to go to Africa to cure a monkey epidemic with some of his animal companions. Now, this is the most difficult and dangerous (as well as adventurous) voyage anyone could take and they face shipwrecks, imprisonment and pirates! The rest of the book has answers to the questions: 1. Does...
