Mr. Scott was for six months chairman of the War Industries Board. The medal is in consideration of his efforts in co-ordinating war production. C. C. C. DETROIT, MICH. June 9, 1919. Detroit manufacturers and those in the metal trades in particular are beginning to realize that they are entering the greatest business era in the city s history. At the present time manufacturers find it hard to obtain the men they need to man their departments. The highest wage is paid, the greatest increase going to common laborers, who are drawing all the way from $4 to $5 a day. The Detroit plants are now open to any labor from the outside. Just an illustration as to labor prices in Detroit: Ice wagon drivers all over the city...
