Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Best friends, Mariah and Sheia, happen to balance each other out, and it just so happens that they fell in love with best friends. They say opposites attract, and that's exactly the case when it comes to Mariah and Sheia. Like salt and pepper, they are so different, yet have so much of an effect on the other. Mariah's craziness and edge give Sheia just the right amount of drama she lacks in life, while Sheia provides the sense of calmness and relaxed tone that Mariah needs. When falling in love with friends, I'm sure neither of the two expected things to turn out the way they did. What started off as a friendly conversation turned into the love of their lives. Born and raised in a world with so much hate and envy, how can you not love someone who you feel was created for you? The love you have when you feel like there's no you without the other and vice versa. Yeah, that's the type of love Sheia has for her longtime boyfriend, Kell. A love like no other and a love that could definitely not be replaced. Kell and Sheia have the perfect relationship when it comes to what many would see as relationship goals. That's if you're on the outside looking in. No one ever sees the headaches, late nights, and problems that occur behind closed doors until someone gets exposed. Let's just hope that, along this journey with Sheia and Kell, that's not the case. Then, there's that love where you just can't let go no matter how hard you try or...
