Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Broken Promise, or the Cottage on the Heath: A Juvenile Tale; Embellished With Several Neat Engravings Emma Barnard was a sickly infant, not more than three months old when her mother died; her father, who lived in London, sent her into the country to be nursed, as he feared the smoky air of the city might be injurious to her health. The person he fixed upon as nurse to his child, was a young woman who had been left a widow, (with an infant about the same age as little Emma,) she lived with old Rachel Saunders, her mother, in a little cottage, on a heath, some miles distant from London. To this young woman did Mr. Barnard commit the care of his little girl, during her infant years; and Mother Mary, (for so Emma learned to call her foster-mother,) proved a most kind and indulgent nurse.
