Excerpt from Wim s Whims Just because our road is narrow, and some engines on the bum, (i am talking to the traveling men, who make all kinds of fun About our little railroad). We don t like that kind of talk. If trains don t run to suit you, why git right out and walk. Take your baggage with you, and stop just where you please; The walking is not crowded, so you can take your ease. Be careful crossing trestles or you might fall through and bust Follow those two streaks of rust, and see who gets there first. Of course I am not boasting, but I ll say this to you, For accidents on railroads, we have but very few; Because our men are careful. They attend to business fine, And when we buy our tickets, we get back to home ou sometime. Now folks don t damn and cuss this road, you ve tried the B. O. There are other roads that s just as bad.
