Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 72: October 13, 1910 But do men always stand between us and our God? On the day of Pentecost, Peter said to the believing multitude: Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. (acts 2: And that, that they might know with him: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. As to how they could know, Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for ?esh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this [the above named] rock [of revela tion] I will build my Church. (matt. 16: 16 Paul says in I. Cor. Wherefore I give you to understand that no man speak ing by the spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say [and know it] that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. The Lord speaking in the revelations given to Joseph Smith as contained in the Doctrine and Covenants, section 20: 37, says, All those who humble themselves before God, and desire to be baptized and come forth with broken hearts and contrite spirits and witness before the Church that they have truly repented of all their sins, and are willing to take upon them the name of Jesus Christ, having a determination to serve Him to the end, and truly manifest by their works that they have received of the Spirit of Christ unto the remission of their...
