Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jack was meant to connect with a being that was an only child but in his haste to be with his soulmate, he bound himself into a body that had a sister. Her path in life was not one that was meant to look after others. Her path was to find her own soulmate. Despite the interference of her brother, she ultimately found the path for her destination but only after experiencing a life of psychological abuse and a sense of hopelessness. Once she realised why she was meant to go to Scotland, her hope was restored. There she received the answers to her questions. A life of love was what she thought she desired but she had no idea what was hidden in plain sight. There were clues and a calling that kept her going which eventually provided a story that she wanted to share. With the help of a goddess, she found true love and found out why she had come back as Theodora Turner.
