Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Christine Bowley (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The why am I here question pops into my head and just as swiftly disappears. I feel no fear, no pain and no sadness. What world could portray this? I am flying now. All movement is effortless. I feel like I have been flying every day of my life. I do not have to think about how to fly, I just fly. Another magical trait this world offers. Excerpt from Destiny Lane by Melanie Toy Imagine a world where having what you want is readily and immediately available. A pure and innocent world that is only accessible by very few, through their dreams. Destiny Lane is an imaginative and captivating world, filled with friendships, new experiences, out of this world abilities and love interests. When Sara falls asleep, she realises Destiny Lane - her dream world - is real. Sara has to wrap her mind around new concepts that she has never had to consider before. A world with no money, using the mind to create what one wants and the default emotion of peace. In the meantime, Sara's life on Earth is below par. Sara is a head-hunter for a modelling agency, Mode Appeal. She seems to have lost her zest for the direction of her career. When Sara starts to explore other avenues, she discovers her real talent is in architecture. To assist Sara in her current challenges, Sara's past lives are revealed to her. Life as a princess and an army leader aid in uncovering the answers. Will she choose the same man she loved in a past life that had her killed? And will she use her leadership skills to try and save...
