Words Dance Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 104 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.2in. What to Do After She Says No takes us from Shanghai to the interior of a refrigerator, but mostly dwells inside the injured human heart, exploring the aftermath of emotional betrayal. This poem is a compact blast of brutality, with such instructions as Climb onto the roof and jump off. If you break your leg, you are awake. If you land without injury, pinch and twist at your arm until you wake up. Ryans use of the imperative often leads us to a reality where pain is the only outcome, but this piece is not without tenderness, and certainly not without play, with sounds and images ricocheting off each other throughout. Anticipate the poetry you wish you knew about during your last bad breakup; this poem offers a first foothold to climb out from that universal experience. - Lisa Mangini This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
