Highlander Naturals Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Almighty Buck Wynn of Brooke, Lewis Wynn, with offices in New York and London, premiere consultants to the restaurant and food service industry, prides himself on his problem-solving skills that have taken him to the pinnacle of success. But Buck has a problem he can't solve. His relationship with Annie Brewster, owner of The Golden Bowl restaurant, is in jeopardy. More importantly, he realizes he's in love with her, a new experience for the man who has never loved anything but money. It occurs to him that falling in love is an answer to the first and only prayer he took from the golden bowl months ago: God is doing a new thing. Buck needs to change if he is to win the woman he loves. But can he reveal his sordid truth to Annie? Annie is preoccupied with family visiting for the summer and her growing business and charities. Her precocious six-year-old niece invites Buck, Annie, and others to join her Supernatural Diet Club, which she explains is a simple, nourishing way of life. Annie's friend and benefactor, Cat Clemente, a rock star philanthropist with the gift of prophecy, is appointed to lead the group. Well aware this journey could be fraught with trouble, Buck hesitantly agrees. Winning Annie and impressing the billionaire philanthropist who can make or break Buck's consulting business are his goals. But Buck soon realizes he has no idea how to resolve a potentially scandalous situation by himself. Sarcastically, he turns to God, and Almighty Buck quickly learns God's ways are not his. The Golden Bowl . . . Nutritionist Annie Brewster knows one small prayer can change everything. As a teenager,...
