THE EMPEROR AND ROME. SPACE, REPRESENTATION, AND RITUAL.

Book Condition: New. Cambridge University Press, Cambridge, 2015. 1st paperback ed. XXI,365p. Paperback. The themes of this book are well chosen for exploring the complex and changing relationship of the Roman Emperor with the Imperial city. The themes of course overlap: ritual and representation both have a spatial dimension, and buildings through which urban space was transformed were often decorated with representational sculpture and intended to accommodate public rituals. In tune with recent developments in ancient history and archaeology, the...
