

The Camel Trail (Paperback)

By Peter J Merrigan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The story of a family on the edge And another not far behind. Sarah Catchpole was raped and beaten by her husband one too many times. When her young son, Kevin, calls the police, Frankie is finally sent to prison. Starting a new life in the sleepy town of Padstow, Cornwall, Sarah and Kevin meet their new neighbours and their son, Martin, who suffers from muscular dystrophy and is almost confined to a wheelchair, but he s hopeful of being able to walk unaided the full length of The Camel Trail, an eleven-mile stretch of scenic path along the coast. But when Frankie is released from prison and tracks them down, the unrelenting chase that ensues is a race against time before Martin s condition deteriorates. With Kevin and Martin missing, Sarah and Martin s parents are plunged headlong into a fight for their boys survival and, ultimately, for their own redemption.
