

You Are Called (Paperback)

By Wayne Hancock

Xulon Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Who is called? The answer is a very simple one. You are called of God. Called to do what? That s the first thing most people think of when they begin to ponder the call of God. Each of us is called to do something, but what we are called to do is secondary to Whom we are called. We are called to God before we are called to do anything for God. The purpose of this book is to better equip you in understanding the call of God and to help you along the way in fulfilling whatever it is that He has invited, summoned, or called you to. My prayer is that this book will help point you in the right direction concerning God s call for your life. Each of our individual calls will be different, even though they are all spiritually intertwined and connected. Wayne Hancock has been serving the Body of Christ in various capacities since 1987. He eventually entered the full-time ministry in February 1996 at Faith Family Maui, where he currently serves as the lead pastor of...
