Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Joan Fetterman was a wife, mother, and grandmother from Milford, Delaware. Her love for Christ spilled over in everything she did, and long before her breast cancer diagnosis, she nurtured intentional relationships with friends, families, and strangers-sharing the gospel through her words and her hospitality. She started her blog as a way to keep others informed about her cancer journey, although she chronicled less about the metastatic cancer and much, much more about Christ's faithfulness in her life. Joan's posts are a legacy to her faith and a treasure for those who knew and loved her. The backdrop of cancer in her story only fueled what she knew to be true anyway, and her posts minister to the reader-reminding us of a victory that is unshakeable by cancer, sin or death.
