Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Learn Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar through Stories with a unique approach that uses intonation and pronunciation to help you with punctuation and hyphenation. You see your friend laughing and ask, What s so funny? And he or she shows you Spagtionary. Would you believe learning grammar could be fun? The author knows grammar is not a subject people love to study, so he has made it fun by using stories in different genres- horror, romance, mystery, and so on- to teach you about hyphens, commas, periods, and many other different boring grammar subjects. Even if you don t want to learn grammar, buy this book to enjoy the stories! Any way you look at it, you ll have fun reading this book! Unique Approach Did you know pronunciation and intonation are connected with punctuation? For instance man-eating shark is pronounced as two words man-eating and shark; whereas man eating shark is pronounced as three distinct words. How about: He is a five-year-old. He is five years old. Notice when you say five-year-old, you stress the first word and year is singular, whereas when you say, He is five years old. You normally stress old. What does that mean? That punctuation and hyphenation are meant to tell you when to intone something a certain way or pause. No other book has this approach. You ll learn to punctuate better just by listening to how you say something, or by singing a sentence. Punctuation and hyphenation came from the need to teach people how to intone, pronounce and sing written texts. So rhyming and storytelling is the way to go! I dare you to find another book with this unique...
