It is hoped that the meetings may take on something of the character of a middle-west library conference, with representatives from the neighboring States of Missouri. Kansas and South Dakota as well as Nebraska and Iowa. A strong program is being prepared, and speakers of national reputation will be secured. Iowa Summer Library School, 1(c)07. The Iowa Library Commission announces the seventh annual session of the Summer School for Library Training, to be held at the State University of Iowa, June 17 to July 27, 1907. Malcolm G. Wyer, librarian of the University of Iowa, is resident director and will give the courses in reference work and bibliography; Miss Harriet E. Howe, the head cataloger at the University library, will give the instruction in cataloging and related subjects; and Miss Irene Warren, in classification. A special course in library work for children will be given during the last two weeks of the session by Miss Lyman, formerly, children s librarian of the Oak Park (I11.) Public Library. There will be a course for teachers who are in attendance in other departments of the summer session, on the care and use of libraries from the teachers standpoint, to he given by Miss Warren, whose work as librarian of the School of Education, University of Chicago, particularly qualifies...
